Investing in the stock market is challenging, as the market dynamics are unpredictable. Analysts, brokers and retail investors realize to their dismay that investments do well, but investors don't do well. What could be the reasons behind this? What goes on in an investor's mind? What makes a stock market bubble? How does it burst? How does one find the right strategy of investing? Intrigued by these pertinent questions, Parag Parikh, a seasoned broker and expert, took up this daunting task of

This is an autobiography that traces the life of a transformational leader, as narrated by him. It alternates between his personal life and his professional life, his aspirations and his accomplishments as a scientist, as an industry captain and as a communicator. Above all, the book is about people and what makes them what they are. It details how his concept of reducing “the distance between minds” helped synergise twenty-six thousand employees of one of the largest industrial enterprises in India, leading to its regeneration and sustainability. The narration is full of subtle elements which will be motivational to many, especially the young.

innovative concept can lead to the development of a new product. This comprehensive book explains how an innovative idea or a concept, if executed properly, can create the best product in the market. The book presents a framework for a new product development, laying emphasis on generic concepts and processes, which are useful and profitable for small and large organizations including the multinationals. The book highlights the innovation theories that are helping service sector companies to prosper and excel in their fields. It also provides a mathematical formula for students to calculate sales-estimation of first-time-sales of a new product. The Ten Case Studies on real-life products from the Indian market enrich the text and enable students to fully understand innovative techniques that help increase the potential and market value of an established product.

opportunity to re-establish itself as a major global power. In 'The Indian Renaissance', the author, Sanjeev Sanyal, looks at the processes that led to ten centuries of fossilization and then at the powerful economic and social forces that are now working together to transform India beyond recognition. These range from demographic shifts to rising literacy levels, but the most important revolution has been the opening of mind and the changed attitude towards innovation and risk. This book is about how India found itself at this historic juncture, the obstacles that it still needs to negotiate and the future that it may enjoy. The author tells the story from the perspective of the new generation of Indians who have emerged from this great period of change. Published and distributed worldwide by World Scientific Publishing Co. except India, UK and North America
